DID YOU KNOW ?

URANDANGI, QLD

Urandangi is a unique town near the NT border founded in 1885 which grew into an important centre for travelers and drovers on the Georgina stock route. Good fishing and birdwatching can be found along the Georgina River and the authentic outback Dangi Pub is a must visit.

Urandangi is 185 kms from Mt Isa and is used as a checkpoint for the ADF and Qld Police.

NEWS AND VIEWS FROM AROUND

COVID PROOF

In the pandemic, tourism and travel companies are struggling to stay afloat, with airlines closing and many travel agencies bankrupt, leaving customers at risk of losing their money. So is there a way to book a holiday without getting stung?

4x4 YACHT

When we talk of SUVs and 4x4s, we think about adventure and exploration. The 60-foot Aquanaut from Licia Yachts has applied the same idea of exploration with expandable sundecks, onboard submarine and toys like Seabobs, diving gear and surf boards.
