DID YOU KNOW ?

WARBURTON, WA

The middle of nowhere, The Back o' Burke, The Never Never, The Outback - that's Warburton for you. The nearest town is Laverton at 566km on a dirt track often closed after rains. Warburton requires a travel permit and did we mention no beer? Yes, it is completely dry.

Warburton lies about 1,485 kms north-east of Perth and 1,000 kms south-west of Alice Springs.

Some Australian state borders have not opened at the time of this newsletter and every state has different border regulations. Please check with the authorities for quarantine requirements before travel

NEWS AND VIEWS FROM AROUND

FUTURE

As world leaders meet at the Glasgow Climate Change Conference on 31st October 2021 to decide the future of global emissions, what will it change for mining towns across the country such as Singleton in NSW or Moura on Queensland's coal belt?
