4WD TYRES

With strong and aggressive tread patterns, All Terrain (AT) tyres have large lugs which help to “clean” off debris and mud that can be built up between the lugs.

The strength and design of these tyres make them less resistant to puncture, compared to other types of tyres. In addition, they can be deflated lower, which is a requirement on challenging terrains.

This is why, at Bus 4x4, we use All Terrain tyres on all our 4x4 conversions.
